D2: Read the following passage and choose the correct answers.

Traditionally, elderly people have always been respected by the younger generation. Elderly people have always been the treasure of our families. However, in the modern society of the 21st century, not only has the number of elderly people increased, but also they are not being respected properly by their children and grandchildren. More children are now leaving their parents alone or are sending them to old-age homes.

Elders are like the roots of the tree. They hold the family firmly at all times and make them strong. They are the ideal teachers because with all the experiences they have gained over the years, they can judge a situation and give useful advice to their children. They also play an important role in solving problems among the family members. Elderly people play an important role in the lives of their grandchildren. They spend time with them, play with them, and teach them important rules and values of life in the form of stories. The stories that they tell have a positive effect on the young minds of children. They also provide a safe and loving environment for children to grow in, which is something that no child care center can provide.

48.Why are elders the ideal teachers?

49.What are the two problems of elderly people in the 21st century?

50) The word "them" in the first line of the second paragraph refers to……...

a) roots b) children c) family members d) elders

True or False

51. Child care centers can provide a safe and loving environment for children to grow in.

D3: Read the following passage and choose the correct answers.

Human beings have been painting pictures for at least 30 thousand years. The earliest pictures were painted by people who wanted to catch and kill animals. Perhaps the painters thought that their pictures would help them to catch the animals. Or perhaps human beings have always wanted to tell stories in pictures.

About 5,000 years ago the Egyptians and other people began to use pictures as a kind of writing. They drew simple pictures or signs to show things and ideas, and also to show the sounds of their language. The signs these people used became a kind of alphabet. 2.5

The Egyptians used to record information and to tell stories by putting picture – writing and pictures together. When an important person died, scenes and stories from his life were painted on the walls of the place where his dead body was put.

By the year 1,000 BC, people who lived in the area around the Mediterranean Sea had developed a simpler system of writing. The signs they used were very easy to write, and there were fewer of them than in Egyptian system. The Greeks developed this system and formed the letters of Greek alphabet. The Romans copied the idea, and the Roman alphabet is now used all over the world.

53. What is the best title for the passage ……
   a. How did ancient people catch and kill animals
   b. How did people show their thoughts in written form
   c. Story of an important dead person on walls
   d. What did people who lived in Mediterranean Sea do

55. Egyptians referred to the names of the things in written form by…….
   a. drawing simple pictures
   b. telling stories
   c. painting stories on walls
   d. showing language sounds

56. The alphabet that was used by …… is now used all over the world.
   a. the people of Mediterranean
   b. the Egyptians
   c. the Romans
   d. the Greeks

57. According to the passage, which sentence is true?
   a. The Egyptians invented a picture alphabet about 5,000 years ago.
   b. Pictures weren't useful for catching or killing animals.
   c. Human beings have used painting just for entertainment.
   d. People developed a system of writing about 2 centuries ago.
