Christmas is the most important public holiday in the US and the UK. It takes place on and around December the 25th. People traditionally spend the day with their families and buy memorable presents for them. People send their friends Christmas cards in order to say" Merry Christmas "to them.
The real purpose of Christmas should be about remembering the story of Jesus' birth and being kind to other people just like the holy Christ.
In Christmas Eve, known as the day before Christmas Day, children get very excited.
According to their beliefs, they hope Santa Claus come down the chimney of their house at night and brings them presents and puts them at the end of their beds.

51-What is the most important holiday in the US (according reading)?

52-Why do people send Christmas cards to their friends?
