M. Read the passage and answer the questions.

Looking up words you don't know, can be difficult especially if you don't know which definition to choose when you open a dictionary. When to look up a word, how an English dictionary is compiled, and which description to choose will help you effectively use the dictionary to improve your understanding of the reading texts. First, decide when to use the dictionary. Guess the meaning of the word based on the context before looking it up. Read the whole sentence, and continue to read the paragraph to see if you can guess the meaning of the word based on the information coming after or before it. Identify the part of speech, if you can, to help you find the meaning of the word. Look for prefixes, suffixes or roots that suggest the word meaning.

If you are still confused or think you are missing important information, now it is the time to take out the dictionary. Decide which type of dictionary to use. There are different types of dictionaries available. They are called online dictionaries, learner's dictionaries, bilingual dictionaries, and monolingual dictionaries.

a) True/False

39. After looking the word up, try to guess it. T F
40. The information around the words helps you guess their meanings. T F

b) Choose the best answer:

41. You effectively use the dictionary …… .
    a) to miss important information b) to guess the meaning of the word
    c) to read the whole sentence d) to improve reading understanding

42. What does "it" in line 7 refer to …….
    a) word b) dictionary c) context d) meaning
