Passage 3: Albert Einstein, a physicist, was born on March 14, 1879, in Germany. He could change people's understanding of the physical world, therefore, he has been considered as one of the great thinkers in science. After graduating in 1900, Einstein had a hard time finding a job at Swiss Patent Office in 1902. This job gave him the time to do some of his important works like writing theoretic papers on physics, especially his Theory of Relativity.

He became a professor at the German University in Prague. He began working at the Prussian Academy of Sciences in Berlin in 1914, and soon finished his work on his General Theory of Relativity, which was published in 1916. Einstein was awarded the Nobel Prize for physics in 1921. In 1933, he left Germany because of the strict rules of Hitler. He went to work at the Institute Advanced Study at Princeton University in New Jersey. He later became a U.S citizen. During World War II, he wrote a letter to President Roosevelt expressing his worry about the atomic bomb.

After stopping his work in the institute in 1945, he spent much of his time giving lectures and speeches and working on theories. In his final years, he lost his health. He was hospitalized with stomach pains several times, and he passed away on April 18, 1955.
