4	O. Read the passage and then answer the questions. Donating is a great way to help others by giving something to someone who needs it more than us. It could be clothes, food, toys, or even our time. People donate clothes and other items to some stores, and others can buy them at less price. The money from these sales often goes to help people in need. Another place to donate is a place that collects food for people who don't have enough to eat. By donating food, we can help someone have enough to eat. Sometimes, we can give money. Some organizations use the money to build schools, provide medical help, or even protect the environment. We can also donate our time by helping or using our skills to help those who need it. Whether reading to children at a library or cleaning up a park, our help can bring joy and make our community. Donating is a generous act. It teaches us to think of others and be kind. So, let's remember the power of donating and keep giving what we can to make the world a better place. * 1. 4	P. Read the passage and then answer the questions. Everyone knows that when a child is born, he cannot speak. Making a few kinds of sound like crying is the only way he can communicate with others. By crying, he says that he is hungry, or he is tired. In this way he can show his feelings, but after a few months, the baby gets aware of his world. At this time, he's careful about everything around him, especially his parents. He begins to record what they do, what they say, and how they act. He even records his parents' tone of voice, or behaviors. Then the baby starts to act like them, it means that he tries to copy them. By acting like his parents, he'll be able to say his first words which are very simple. As he grows up, the child's speaking ability improves, and when he gets older, he can choose proper words, and expressions to say exactly what he wants. * 1. How can a baby communicate with others? 2. A baby copies his parents to show his feeling. a. True b. False 3. After a long time the baby can understand the world around. a. True b.
