Read the passage and answer the question

Some people prefer to provide help and support directly to those in need. However, others prefer to give money to national and international charity organizations. Giving money to those in need can be a personally good experience, but there is a choice between donating nationally and internationally through charities or giving directly to those around you.

One of the advantages of providing direct support is that you can know exactly how your money is spent. Another benefit is that you can see the impacts on those you are helping, which can lead not only to great personal happiness but also to respect from others who appreciate the work you do. There are advantages in giving to charities that are national and international. First and the best is helping in problems of global importance, such as curing diseases and human rights or helping those who are in bad environmental events like earthquakes and floods. In conclusion a person should make their own choice in helping others. The important point is that we continue to give to those who are more in need than ourselves.

29. What can it lead to when you see the impacts on those you are helping?

30.What is the important point in helping others?

31. What is the closest synonym for the word "benefit?"

a. experience b. advantage c. choice d. effect

32. Helping people in bad environmental events has the global importance. a. True☐ b. false☐

33. All people feel great personal happiness when they help others. a. True☐ b. false☐

Amir Kabir

Amir Kabir, also known as Mirza Taghi Khan Farahani, was a prominent Iranian statesman and reformer during the 19th century. He served as the chief minister to Naser al-Din Shah Qajar and played a key role in modernizing Iran's government and economy. Amir Kabir implemented various reforms aimed at centralizing the government, improving the country's infrastructure, and promoting education and modernization. Ile established new schools and universities, reformed the tax system, and sought to reduce corruption within the government.

Despite his efforts to modernize Iran, Amir Kabir faced opposition from powerful religious leaders and courtiers who were resistant to change. In 1851, he was dismissed from his position as chief minister and later executed on the orders of Naser al-Din Shah. Amir Kabir's legacy as a reformer and visionary leader has endured in Iranian history.
