Elders respect us more than children. c. Children will carry elders when they grow old. d. When we respect elders, our children learn to respect us.
16	Children are taught to respect elders by their parents at very young ages. Throughout school and university, they are reminded of them while their personalities develop. But still, we often forget to respect our elders. Respecting elders should come from within. Respecting elders come under good habits and manners. Everyone welcomes a well-behaved person. As we all know, history repeats itself. If we will respect our elders today, we will get respect when we grow old. There are many ways to show respect to elders. For example, they feel happy and honored when we include them in the decision making of the family. They are more experienced than us and they also have walked the same path before us. So, we should always ask for their advice. Another way is listening to them and following their customs, which they have lived up to. We should also repeatedly Visit them and invite them to our house, too. We should often sit and eat with them. All this will help us to recognize and appreciate our elders. Always remember that people are always judged by their actions and each word or action has a reaction. So, if you want to succeed and be happy in life, start respecting elders by being polite. Finally, I would like to say, our elders are really worthy and we should respect them. 56. The word "repeatedly" in the second line of paragraph 3 means -- a) many ways b) many times c) many customs d) many actions 57. What does "them" in the first line of paragraph 3 refer to? a) manners b) habits c) elders d) families 58. When do elders feel honored? 59. Why should we ask elders for their advice? 60.
