Passage 1: Read the passage carefully and answer the questions.

It was a cold day in Bijar. Students couldn't go out, so they stayed in their classes. Mr. Omidzadeh, who was a teacher from Gilan, was the teacher of students in grade 5. He went to his class and started teaching.

Suddenly, he heard loud screams coming from grade 2 class. The students were shouting loud for help. They were caught in fire, and they didn't know what to do. As fast as possible, Mr. Omidzadeh ran toward their class. He and Mr. Abedi, the teacher of grade 2, spared no pains to save the students. They took out the students one by one. He succeeded to save the last student, too. However, when he himself wanted to get out, the class door got locked. He tried hard to open it, but it was impossible because the doorknob was broken. It was getting hotter and hotter. He even couldn't see clearly because of the smoke and large flames.

Mr. Omidzadeh ran to the window and tried to get out, but he couldn't. At this time, people of the village saw the fire and ran to his help. They broke the class door and took him out. Sadly, he was severely burned. They called the emergency. He was taken to Poursina Hospital in Fuman. He stayed in the hospital for three months until he was sent to a hospital in Tehran. Physicians at both hospitals spared no pains to cure him. They did about 17 operations on him.

After being discharged from the hospital, his wife took care of him for a long time. After a while, Mr. Omidzadeh got a bit better, but he suffered a lot of pain for years. Despite his terrible pain, he was always happy that the 30 young students were saved successfully.

Passage 2: Read the passage carefully and answer the questions. 17

When a child is born, he cannot speak. The only way he can communicate with others is making a few kinds of sound like crying. By crying, he can show his feelings, he can say, "I am hungry, I'm tired, ……." But after a few months, the baby gets aware of his world. At this time, he's careful about everything around him, especially his parents. He begins to record what they do, what they say and how they act. He even records his parent's accent, tone of voice, or gesture. Then the baby starts to imitate them, that is he tries to copy them and act just like them. By imitating his parents, he'll be able to say his first words which are normally very simple. As time passes, the child's speaking skill develops more and more, and when he gets older, he can choose proper words, gestures, and expressions to say exactly what he wants.

58. Which sentence is correct?

a. The first child's words are very simple. b. Parent's gestures are also difficult to practice.

c. The baby doesn't copy his parent's action. d. As a child gets older, he can't speak at all.

59. The only means of communication for a newborn baby is ---------- .

a. crying b. his facial expressions c. gestures d. saying difficult words

60. The baby gets to know the world around when he ---------- .

a. copies his parents b. goes to school c. acts quickly d. is a few months old

61. The word, " imitate" is closest in meaning to ---------- .

a. remind b. copy c. change d.respect
