۱۳	Reading متن زیر را بخوانید و به سوالات داده شده هر قسمت پاسخ دهید. Suppose that you have a very small vocabulary. Also suppose that you don't know how to get the meanings of new words. When you come across an unfamiliar word, that word may stop your understanding of the passage. Your eyes pause too long on the word as you try to get its meaning. You go back and read the word again, try to get its meaning from the context. As a result, you read much more slowly than you should, and you find that the difficult word is a wall to your comprehension. Suppose that you know many words and you are skilled in finding the meaning of new words. Your eyes move quickly and you read rapidly. You comprehend what you are reading. If you have a good vocabulary, you are more interested in reading. 39. What may happen when you come across an unfamiliar word? 40. How does having a good vocabulary influence your reading habits? 41. What is the closest synonym for the word "suppose"? a) believe b) accept c) understand d) imagine True / False 42. Unknown words in a passage may make comprehension easier. a) True b) False 43. The meaning of a new word may be guessed from the text. a) True b) False	۴

Albert Einstein, a physicist, was born on March 14, 1879, in Germany. He could change people's understanding of the physical world, therefore, he has been considered as one of the greatest thinkers in science. After graduating in 1900, Einstein had a hard time finding a job. He finally got a job at the Swiss Patent Office in 1902. This job gave him the time to do some of his important works like writing theoretic papers on physics, especially his Theory of Relativity.

He became a professor at the German University in Prague. He began working at the Prussian Academy of Sciences in Berlin in 1914, and soon finished his work on his General Theory of Relativity, which was published in 1916. Einstein was awarded the Nobel Prize for physics in 1921. In 1933, he left Germany because of the strict rules of Hitler. He went to work at the Institute of Advanced Study at Princeton University in New Jersey. He later became a U.S citizen. During World War II, he wrote a letter to President Roosevelt expressing his worry about the atomic bomb.

After stopping his work in the institute in 1945, he spent much of his time giving lectures and speeches and working on theories. In his final years, he lost his health. He was hospitalized with stomach pains several times, and he died on April 18, 1955.

Many countries now think that cars that burn fossil fuels should be replaced by electric cars. Electric cars don't burn gasoline in the engine, so they don't make the air dirty and unclean. They use electricity stored on the car in batteries.

The electric car is usually plugged in at night. The car can be plugged into a special charging unit even at houses. Some electric cars can be plugged right into a regular electrical wall outlet. Others need a larger outlet, like the kind that a stove or a vacuum cleaner plugs into.

The engineers are trying to make better batteries that hold more energy and last longer. To overcome the problem of charging electric cars, hybrid cars are also available. Hybrid cars combine the benefits of gasoline engines and electric motors. They can be designed to meet different goals, such as better fuel economy or more power.

Answer the questions.

48. Why don't electric cars make the air dirty and unclean?

49. When is usually the electric car plugged in?

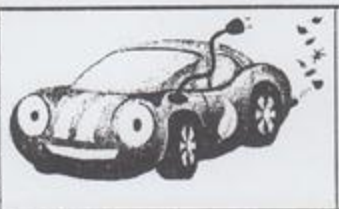

True / False

50. Electric cars use both fossil fuel and electricity. a) True b) False

51. Hybrid cars are used to solve the problem of charging electric cars. a) True b) False
