Reading Comprehension: Read the passage and then answer the question.

Jabbar Baghcheban is well known for opening the first Iranian kindergarten and first deaf school for Iranian kids. He is the author of the book 'Method of Teaching the Deaf' in which he explained his unique method of teaching the deaf, known as 'oral hand alphabet system'. He devoted his life to speech training of Iranian deaf students. There are plenty of Baghceban schools all across the country now for deaf kids. Mirza Jabbar Asgarzadeh was born in Yerevan, Armenia. His origin was from Tabriz or Urmia in the Iranian Azerbaijan region. The first kindergarten he stablished was called the baghch-e Atfal which means the "kids garden". That is why he was given the nickname Baghceban which literally means "gardener" in the Persian language. He founded a school for the deaf in 1924. That school was located next to his kindergarten. In 1928 he wrote the first Iranian children's book in Persian. The book was called baba barfi which means "snow daddy" in Persian.
