3	Reading comprehension :1 There are many things that a dictionary can provide for the users, but a good dictionary must always give example sentences for every word. An example sentence is an English sentence which contains the new word. Example sentences are actually more important than definitions. A definition tells you the meaning of a word and (sometimes) gives you some grammatical information. Example sentences have more to say. They have at least two good points: First, they let you check if you have understood the definition correctly. The meaning of a word can become much clear if you read a few sentences with the new word. Second, they show you how to use a word in different sentences (for example, the word "important" is often used in the phrase″It is important to ....″) or words in combination (for example, you may know that "tell" and "say" are synonyms, but the word″truth″ goes with″tell″and not with″say″). Example sentences present this information in a clear way. You can easily copy them to make your own sentences seem more natural. True / False 39. You can see the new word in its example sentence. a) True b) False 40. Definitions sometimes give you grammatical information. a) True b) False Answer the questions. 41. What does the word″truth″usually go with? 42. How can you make your own sentences more natural?	13
4	Reading comprehension :2 Respect is a way of acting well or thinking highly about something or someone. You respect those who are important to you. You show your respect by being polite and kind. When you are impolite or act badly toward people, they may feel sad or angry. But whom should you respect the most? You must care for those who always care for you. You know that your parents care for you for every little thing. You must love them, respect them, and care for them. Besides bringing you into the world, your parents spend their time, energy, and strength to make sure that you have what you need or want. Telling them that you thank them reflects the level of your respect for them. The easiest way to show your love and respect is to tell them that you appreciate who they are and what they do. You can also do something small but meaningful, for example, wash the dishes, clean the kitchen after dinner or clean the rooms. Your parents will pay attention to and appreciate	14

	your acts of kindness. You may also tell your mom how well she cooks, or tell your dad how great he is at his job. For most of parents, any of these small things can be a sign of respect. True / False 43. We respect those who are important to us for some reasons. a) True b) False 44. If you are impolite or act badly toward people, they feel important. a) True b) False Choose the best answer. 45. We show our.....by being polite to those we care for. a) need b) strength c) happiness d) respect 46. Telling your parents that you thank them ..... the level of your respect for them. a) reflects b) invents c) imagines d) shouts Answer the questions. 47. What is the easiest way to show your love and respect to your parents? 48. Can doing good small things show your respect to your parents? (Give an example).
