Water is the most essential element in our life. We cannot think of life without water. We need it to drink, wash our bodies and clothes, cook our food and grow crops, vegetables and fruits. Water is also essential for animals, birds, insects, etc. We need huge resources of it to produce electricity on a large and commercial scale. Nearly 70 percent of our body is water. No living being can exist for long without water, the most valuable liquid. We use oceans, seas, rivers and lakes as waterways to carry goods, passengers, etc. Lack of water causes a lot of problems for us, so saving it is necessary. For example, using a dishwasher saves much more water than hand washing. In short, water is very important to our life and our planet.

۲,۵	متن زیر را بخوانید و به سوالات داده شده پاسخ دهید. Elderly people have to deal with the problems of aging, especially those related to health and income. Health-related issues commonly include normal losses of hearing, eyesight and memory. In addition, the elderly commonly run a high risk of developing some serious illnesses such as kidney problem, stomach cancer, diabetes, and heart disease. While some people do not experience these issues until very old age, a lot of them learn to find a way to live with the limitations caused by health problems. Nowadays, elderly people receive better medical care during their lives as most governments have national health plans for them. Income, as another important problem, has also influenced the way the elderly live. Most of these people are retired and do not work anymore. They usually earn about half the money that working people make. As a result, they may face various economic issues. This makes the situation even more difficult for those who do not have suitable houses, have no access to means of transportation and do not receive social services. Something needs to be done to improve their condition so that they feel more hopeful about the future. They will find it difficult to keep their social relationships. Providing better medical care and meeting their money-related needs will help them live a happy life. ❖True / False 41. National health plans offer the elderly better medical care.
