It is also important to note that elders were not born elders; they were kids like us and now have grown old. A few years hence we will also grow older. If today we respect them, our present and future generations will carry those values and will learn to respect us as well when we grow old. Elders have a lot to share with us: their life experiences, their failures, their successes and many more. Thus, we need to care for them because they deserve to be cared for. Respect and care for elders start with our parents, as they are our first teachers in our life. No matter what we do in our lives, who we are, and where we live, we must love them as they love us unconditionally. They feel honored when we appreciate their love and respect them. True / False 1- It is important to remember that elders were not born elders. a) True b) False 2- The passage says that elders have nothing to share with us. a) True b) False Choose the best answer. 3- What does "they" in the second line of paragraph 2 refer to? a) future generation b) parents c) teachers d) lives Answer the question. 4- How do elders feel when we appreciate their love?	9
