It is very important for us to respect our elders. It is also important to note that elders were not born elders; they were kids like us and now have grown old. A few years hence we will also grow older. If today we respect them, our present and future generations will carry those values and will learn to respect us as well when we grow old. Elders have a lot to share with us: their life experiences, their failures, their successes and many more. Thus, we need to care for them because they deserve to be cared for. Respect and care for elders start with our parents as they are our first teachers in our life.

No matter what we do in our lives, who we are, and where we live, we must love them as they love us unconditionally. They feel honored when we appreciate their love and respect them. So, it is our duty to help them when they need us because they are not young enough to handle things on their own like before.

❖ True / False

31) Elders have always been elders and were never young like us. a) True b) False

32) Elders have nothing to share with children. a) True b) False

❖ Choose the best answer.

33) What does the word "they" in paragraph 2, line 3 refer to?

a) our children b) future generations c) our parents d) the elders

34) The closest synonym for "on their own" in the last line could be _____.

a) alone b) unconditionally c) supported d) together

❖ Answer the following questions.

35) How do our parents feel when we respect them?

36) Name two things that elders can share with us from their lives.

Small acts of kindness such as giving someone a gift, giving your seat on public transportation to someone who needs it, giving a smile to a stranger, or offering someone to carry something for them can make a big difference in your life. They do not take much time, but they do require thoughtfulness and effort. A simple kind phrase like "You look great today!", a heartfelt thank you, or a friendly word can make someone's day. It can make them smile and feel good. This is the "power of kindness". Such small acts of kindness are the basis of many successful relationships.

A good dictionary gives the user information about words such as spellings, pronunciations and definitions. It also gives examples of how to use the words in sentences correctly. Therefore, it is essential to know how to use a dictionary. In this text, we provide you with some helpful tips on how to use a dictionary effectively.

1. Read the Guide Words. These are the two words at the top of each page that show the first and last entries on the page. These words will help you find the word you are looking for in the right letter section.

2. Read the Definitions. Once you find an entry, you can find the exact meaning of the word, its pronunciation, part of speech, synonyms, antonyms, and probably its origin.

3. Look for Collocations. Learning the meaning of a single word is not usually enough. Through sentence examples, try to learn collocations to expand your vocabulary.
