N	Reading Comprehension: Read the passage and then answer the question.	5

Read Mrs. Sohrabi's experience in learning language.

Whenever I remember the early days of my English language learning, I feel how important to me it was to speak English no matter how difficult it might be.

To tell the truth, at the beginning of learning English, I had difficulty making English sentences correctly. Besides, I couldn't pronounce or understand English words well. Therefore I enrolled in an English institute to improve both my speaking and listening comprehension.

Moreover, I spent two hours a day listening to English songs, watching movies with English subtitles and reading short stories. After a while, my English began improving greatly and I really found it easy to communicate with people who could speak English very well.

Finally, I should mention that according to my experience, everyone can learn English easily even if she is not young. She should just try hard and believe in himself or herself.

Now scan the text and answer the following questions.
